

Kentucky Elk Hunting GUIDEBOOK

www.trailsrus.com/elk

WMTH Corporation in partnership with KDFWR and RMEF, bring you this year's Kentucky Elk Hunting Guidebook. We also encourage you to attend the 2010 Elk Expo & Sportsmens' Show August 27-28, 2010 in the heart of Elk Country. Info on the following page.

FREE admission to the Elk Expo for all hunters drawn for this year's hunt.

On Saturday night of the Expo, a 2010 bull tag to hunt on ICG property in zones 1, 2, 3, or 4 will be auctioned off. If you have a friend wanting to join you in this year's hunt, encourage them to come bid on the bull tag.

Following this year's hunt, WMTH Corporation will be sending you a questionnaire to complete about your hunt. We will also add photos of your kill so don't forget to pack your camera.

Survey results on last year's hunt are available at:
www.trailsrus.com/elk.

COME TO KNOTT COUNTY, KY

The Kentucky Elk Expo is held each year at Chestnut Mountain's* Knott County Sportsplex which features 5 basketball/volleyball courts, 3 baseball fields, a bowling alley, spring-board gymnastics floor, a Nautilus fitness center, a walking track and concessions.

Knott County Kentucky, Elk Capital of the East, is home to hundreds of elk. Elk tours are available through both Jenny Wiley & Buckhorn State Resort Parks. For a unique experience, Saddle Up Elk Tours offers elk tours on horseback. There are also hundreds of miles of ATV & horse trails. Camping and boating is available at Carr Creek Lake.

Restaurants include: Subway, Dairy Queen and the Mall Restaurant at Holly Hills Shopping Center, the Artisan Cafe' in downtown Hindman as well as pizza shops and a few other restaurants. There is also a skate park and public swimming pool.

Visit knottcountyadventure.com to learn more about the many offerings in Knott County.

*Chestnut Mountain is a new commercial & residential development located off Hwy 80 in the heart of the Appalachia mountains. See chestnutmountainky.com for more info.

*The lists in this booklet are not meant to be complete. They contain the information that we are aware of at the time of printing. This does not mean we certify or recommend those listed. Ask for references when possible.

2010 Elk Expo

& Sportsmen's Show

AUGUST 27 - 28, 2010

Knott County Sportsplex in Soft Shell, Kentucky

Don't miss this opportunity to meet with outfitters, previous elk hunters, and those in the area that know the lay of the land and where to find the elk. We will have vendors, taxidermists, guide services as well as special presentations including "I Just Killed an Elk - Now What?"

All past and current elk hunters have been invited to attend. Those drawn in this year's lottery will be admitted to the Expo FREE of charge. The event includes antler scoring, elk calling, ATV safety demonstrations, educational offerings, raffles, guest speakers, archery shoot, live and silent auctions, exhibits, vendors plus much more. Elk Tours are also available. New this year, Beast Feast on Friday evening will have a sampling of wild game including wild boar and antelope. For more information, visit www.trailsrus.com/elkexpo.

On Saturday night, Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation is hosting a banquet. All are invited to attend. Cost $25 per person or $40 for two includes full dinner, and participation in raffles, auction and more. For more info on the banquet, call (270) 781-6858.
