

QUIGG HOUSE

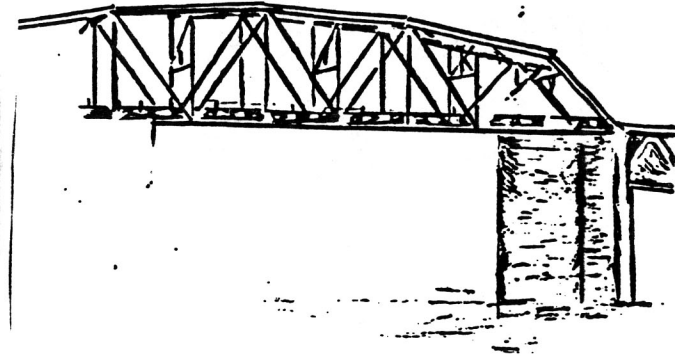

8

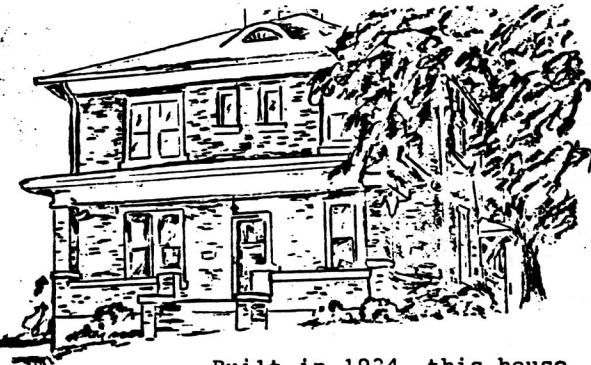

Dating back to the early 1900's, this house can be appreciated for its lovely wood structure.

LIVERMORE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Remodeled several times, this church was built in 1902 and is the oldest church in Livermore

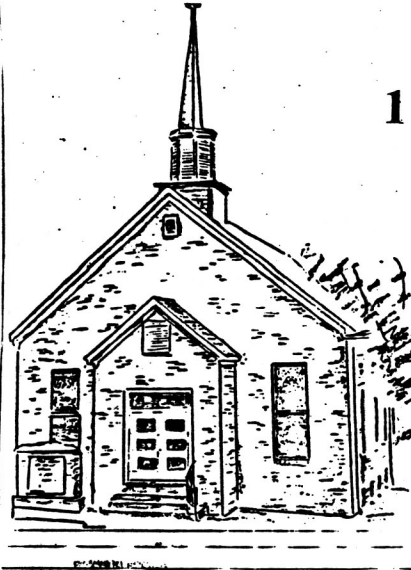

QUISENBERRY HOUSE

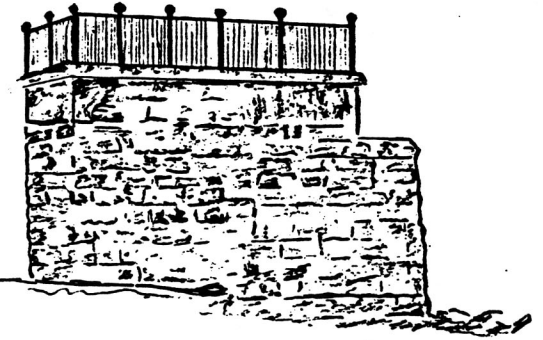

9

Built in 1924, this house was owned by the Quisenberry family until the 1980's.

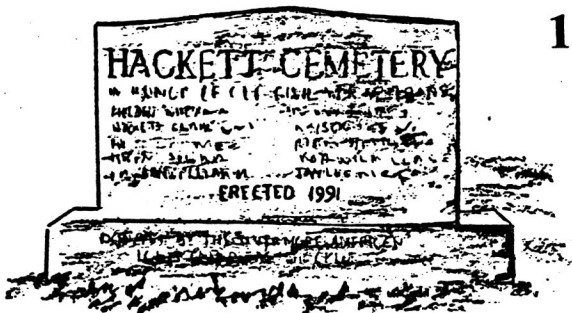

10

Livermore Walking Tour

11

This cemetery serves as the final resting place for 11 of McLean County's Civil War veterans, both Union & Confederate.

Sponsored by McLean County
Chamber of Commerce
Tour Developed by Eldon
Eaton, Edith Bennett,
Shelia Heflin, Jennie
Seymour, Doris Brenner,
& Numerous Contributors

June 27, 1992

SENIOR CITIZENS BUILDING

1

Built around 1900, this building has served as a Union Hall, a saloon, a bank & a dentist office.

HENNINGER HOUSE

4

Known as the "Drummer House" because of the salesmen who found lodging there, this structure dates back to the 1800's and has continually been in the Henninger family.

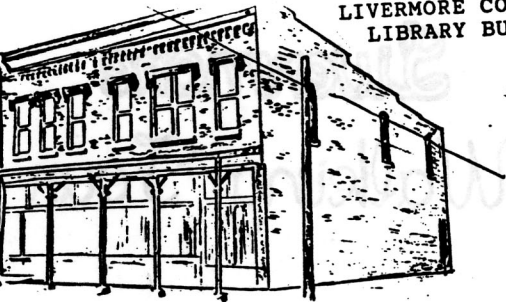

6

SCOTT HOUSE

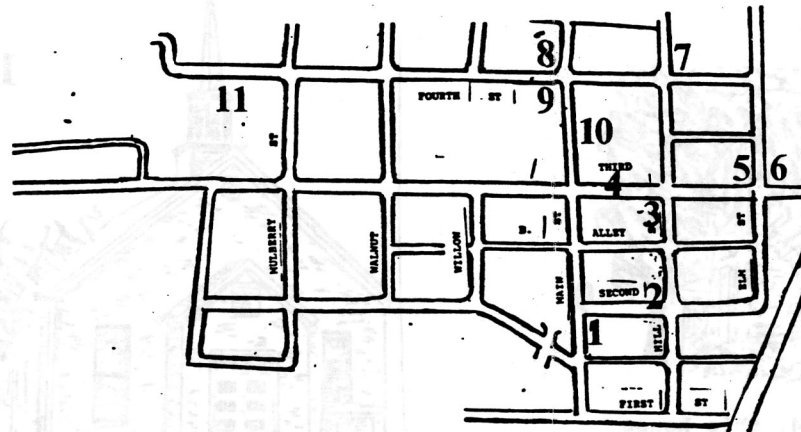

Perhaps the oldest house in Livermore, this home was built on land originally owned by Livermore's founder, William A. Brown.

LIVERMORE COMMUNITY LIBRARY BUILDING

2

This building was built by Benjamin F. Quigg around 1900. It has been used as a general store, bank, post office, barbershop, and presently as a library.

KIDD BUILDING

3

Originally built in 1905 to house the Livermore Mercantile Company, the principal proprietor of the building has been Allan E. Kidd and family.

OWEN-DEVER HOUSE

5

This original part of this house was built around 1827. It was constructed with square nails and has solid wood sheeting. It has been in the Owen family for five generations.

7

A. E. KIDD HOUSE

This two-story frame house was built by Allan E. Kidd and has been occupied by a member of that family since 1915